A Parishioner's Journey of Service and Adventure

By Colin Gallagher '00

Rosalie Schmitz, class of 1954, has lived a block away from St. Ignatius since she was three months old, but her adventurous life has taken her to forty-three countries! A lifelong parishioner, her stories are informal history lessons, full of details that offer glimpses into the past. Here are a few.

Let's start in 1945. Little Rosalie spent her days as a "first grade wannabe" joining the kids outside at recess. St. Ignatius looked very different. The original 1908 building was the hall, school, and church. In 1950 the parish community built a new school and Dillon Hall in 1960. She started first grade with Sister Mary Agneda in a small wooden "portable" building where the parish office now stands. Third through eighth grade classes took place in a three-story building built in 1908: parish hall in the basement, school in the middle, church on the top floor.

Teachers and daily routines matched the orderly Catholic Church of the 50's. All the teachers were Sisters of the Holy Names, living in the convent, rarely leaving for anything but school or parish work, visiting little with family, and wearing full habits that covered everything but their faces. Students attended 8:15 am mass every day and wore a strict uniform - no free dress days! They could only take Communion on first Fridays, and only after fasting since midnight. In seventh and eighth grade, girls were excused from class to help sing the Requiem Mass in Latin for funerals.

Now, let's take a trip around the world. In 1967, Rosalie spent two years in Tunisia with the Peace Corps, helping nursery and kindergarten teachers, who only received six months of training, improve their skills. While adult Tunisians spoke Arabic and French, children didn't learn French until the third grade. Rosalie only had two years of high school French, and she had to learn Arabic in a three-month training program. A French colony until 1956, Tunisia was very liberal and progressive. She was able to attend Catholic mass nearly every Season Greetings from Fr. Craig, S.J.

Dear Alumni and Friends of St. Ignatius School:

December, 2016

Advent greetings of peace from the Parish Office, and joy to you as we celebrate another Christmas season of Jesuit education at St. Ignatius School "for the greater glory of God." I hope that you all are able to take time and slow down to enjoy this joyous season of anticipation and celebration.

I have been anticipating a major project since my arrival at St. Ignatius and wish that you will give me a few minutes to share it with you.

There is a story of two hunters who chartered a bush pilot to take them moose hunting in Alaska. After a successful hunt, they insisted on stowing both of the huge animals in the plane for the return trip. "There's no way this plane can handle that much weight," the pilot said. But one hunter urged, "We got both moose in the plane last year." So after careful packing, they took off. Unable to gain altitude, they soon crashed. When they pulled themselves from the wreckage, one hunter asked, "Where are we?" The other hunter answered, "A little up the hill from where we crashed last year."

This story reminds me of the recent history at St. Ignatius Parish around deferred maintenance and space needs. Going back twenty-five years, parish leadership recognized that buildings were wearing out, boilers needed replacing, seismic upgrading was overdue – so first one then another master plan was developed to meet our space needs. And one after another plan never got off the ground.

Starting with Fr. Pope and Fr. Antunez, there was consensus about what we wanted to do. Part of the challenge was raising money, but another part was continuity of leadership. Just when everyone was clear about our needs, we changed pastors. As I begin my fifth year here, I can tell you that I'm committed to see through to completion our maintenance and campus renewal needs.

These needs include: expanding our gym to make it full size; adding a community center for receptions, a pre-school, offices, St. Vincent de Paul drop-off, and rooms for small meetings; plus upgrading the campus with a covered play area and grass, adequate parking, and traffic flow to avoid pedestrian/car conflict.

In order to make this project fly, the Archdiocesan Pastoral Center requires a process of approving everything from master plan to design review to bank loans to construction costs to cash flow to the maintenance expenses to operate a new building. These are the same familiar challenges that St. Joseph parish in Seattle and St. Pius X parish in Cedar Mill overcame during my years completing building projects there.

The good news is that parish life this advent is thriving. Fr. John is using his student Masses this year as a chance to instruct the children in the Ignatian spiritual exercise called "the examine" – a daily review of the divine stirrings in our hearts. Tyler Wagner has joined the parish staff as the first Ignatius Fellow. Tyler has a degree from Notre Dame in environmental science. He is helping our students and parish families practice care for the earth and sustainable patterns of consumption and conservation. And Beth Schaller now works halftime on the parish staff as family life coordinator – to connect activities for moms, marriage enrichment, faith formation and play among school and church families.

Finally, thanks once again for your generous support of the Foundation. Your contributions help families send their children to St. Ignatius School. Your help is real. Without you, deserving families would not be able to attend. And in this new season of challenge, pray the Lord's light and courage for us to fly together for the journey ahead.

Christmas Greetings,

Fr. Craig Boly, S.J.

A Note from our Foundation President

Season Greetings Alumni, Parents, Parishioners, and Friends of the St. Ignatius School Foundation:

May the faith, hope, and love of the Advent Season be with your family. On behalf of the members of the St. Ignatius School Foundation Board we pray that you are in good health and stay warm during these cold days.

I am pleased to report that the Foundation had the privilege of providing the school with a financial gift that will support the fostering of Catholic development again this year. The distribution from the Foundation to the school for the 2016-2017 School year was $80,000. Without your continual support as a community of benefactors and patrons of the St. Ignatius School Foundation, our work to support the school families would not be possible. We appreciate your support and look forward to our bright future together.

We are very blessed to have the financial stability a Foundation provides. For the last 32 years, board members and people such as yourselves have shared the importance of the foundation, donated their hard-earned money, and made the endowment what it is today. Many donations are from community members giving less than $50 at a time. All contributions make a difference; and all donors are families that support and believe in the mission of our school.

Relationships in this community and the desire to leave a legacy grounded in faith and a quality education enables us to celebrate the school not only today but also well into the future. The Foundation enjoys hearing the stories of families and alumni and the success they have after graduation. You are part of that story and together we continue this long tradition – one that started 108 years ago – with over 3100 alumni!

Currently 12 volunteer Board Members meet monthly. We look after the Foundation; carry out the bylaws and promote affordable excellence in Catholic Education. We send out newsletters, hold alumni events, work on the annual appeal, and host a donor tea in the spring to name a few of our activities.

Every year, the board of directors, in accordance with our distribution policy – give a portion of the earnings from the endowment to the school. It is in our bylaws and in the nature of the Foundation that we never spend the principal. If you give the Foundation $100 we will never spend that $100. The $100 is invested and continues to earn for the school every year.

From the beginning, it has been the intent to provide a long-term income stream to the school. Therefore, the board's highest priority is to make prudent decisions with the donations left to our care. Shifts in the market affect the distribution. However, with mindful management throughout the years, prudence has paid off and the Foundation has been able to make a total $834,120 dollars in support to the school in just 32 years.

Thank you for your continued support! I look forward to our future as a community.

May the peace of Christ be with you,

Jo Ann Grubb
President

Sunday. To feel at home in a foreign land, Rosalie (cont. on page 4) hosted friends for spaghetti and meatballs on the same February day as the annual St. Ignatius Italian Dinner. In 1971, she spent a year with the Jesuit Volunteers teaching kindergarten and counseling high school girls in El Paso, Texas. A quarter of her girls were Mexicans, coming over each day from Juarez on student visas to improve their English.

Over the years, Rosalie has been a social worker, Van Veen Rhododendron Nursery employee, personal assistant, caretaker of her parents, and remained active at St. Ignatius by volunteering (church cleaning crew, phone-a-thons, and more) and singing at Mass. Starting as the youngest member in 1958, Rosalie sang in the St. Ignatius choir until 2008! She still lives in the house her parents built and drives her father's 1978 Checker Cab (it never actually served as a taxi). She continued traveling widely: cruises (35 days in the North Atlantic, LA to Sydney), tours and long stays (two weeks in Yemen, a month in Japan, two weeks in South Korea), and road trips (five months in Tunisia, Europe, Wisconsin, and Minnesota with her mother, over the Andes from Chile to Argentina and back again).

Rosalie has a wealth of wonderful stories ranging from Portland to Austria to the Atacama Desert. You never know what adventures the person next to you has been on! If you see her around, take a few minutes to ask about them (bring up Betty Wilson and the garter snake fainting episode) and thank her for all her service to St. Ignatius.

A Note from our Principal

Dear Families and Friends of St. Ignatius School,

The school has a busy place this year. In the interests of safety our fire alarm system was upgraded and we had a new public address system installed. The PA system also increases and eases communication throughout the school. Student restrooms were upgraded thanks to the generosity of families, friends, and donors who gave money at our auction last spring.

We welcomed 215 students to St. Ignatius for the 2016 – 2017 school year. In the first week, our new student council welcomed everyone, especially new students and staff, at our Wednesday assembly. We had Back-to-School Night in which our parents came to hear teachers share their policies and procedure for the year. Following that, our parent association hosted a social giving parents a chance to connect with one another after the summer break and to welcome the new parents to our school.

Having completed our in-depth study in English/language arts last year, we made the decision to purchase a new ELA series for all grade levels this year. This will assist us in providing consistency in our teaching from one grade to the next and insure that there are no gaps in the curriculum. Teachers received in-service training on how best to use the texts to improve student learning at each grade level.

Our theme this year is The Wonders of the Lord. We encourage our students, while reminding ourselves, to appreciate God's gifts each day. We look forward to a great school year. I am grateful to all who support the mission of St. Ignatius School to provide a faith-centered Catholic education guiding God's children toward a just and compassionate world.

Peace,

Monica O'Callaghan
Principal

Open Positions on the Board!

Would you like a chance to join a board that makes a big difference in the lives of the children at St. Ignatius School? We are looking for a few individuals to help carry out the vision of the original Foundation board; building an endowment that will give support to the school both in tuition assistance and for the general fund.

Alumni who are interested in staying connected are encouraged to join us! We also welcome parents of current students, parishioners and people who are experienced with work on Foundations. We are looking for a range of experience from those with a finance background to people who enjoy organizing events. We can always use help with secretarial assistance and compiling our newsletter. We would also like to increase our online presence.

Serving on the Foundation Board is a great experience! Your talents will be greatly appreciated— We ask that you consider a seat on this successful Foundation!

Contact Jo Ann Grubb at (503) 774-2917 or joanngrb@comcast.net for more information. Thank-you!

Please include us in your Estate Planning

There are a number of ways to remember the St Ignatius School Foundation in your estate plan. The Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization that allows you to enjoy all the benefits afforded by the US Tax Code when making gifts to us, either in life or on your passing.

Perhaps the most common and simple way to include the Foundation in your last wishes is to include a bequest to us in your will or trust. There is an unlimited estate tax deduction for amounts left to charity so including us in your estate plan may substantially decrease the taxes owed by your loved ones at your passing. Bequests can be made of specific property, specific dollar amounts, a percentage of your estate or an asset and even in fractional amounts. Please contact us for sample language for use in your will or trust.

Another simple and effective way to include the St Ignatius School Foundation in your estate plan is to name us the beneficiary of your retirement assets or accounts. Most IRA accounts, as well as many other retirement accounts, are subject to two-levels of taxation after your passing. They are subject to estate tax (at a maximum rate of 45% in 2008) as well as income tax (which is due as payments are actually made to your beneficiaries). Designating the Foundation as your beneficiary can avoid this undesirable result because your estate will receive a deduction for the gift, thereby exempting the assets from estate tax. In addition, since the Foundation is a tax exempt organization it is not subject to income tax on receipt of the payments or assets so you effectively avoid both levels of taxation.

Split-interest trusts that are established in your will or trust to form at your death are a great way to include the St Ignatius School Foundation in your estate plan while also transferring assets or income to your loved ones with discounted estate tax consequences. A Charitable Remainder Trusts allows your chosen beneficiaries to receive an income interest from your assets for a term of years or their lives. Then at the termination of the Trust the remainder passes to support the Foundation. A Charitable Lead Trust allows the Foundation to receive an income stream from your assets for a number of years before the assets ultimately pass to your beneficiaries. Both of these options entitle your estate to an estate tax deduction. This allows you to make a gift to both your loved ones and to the Foundation from the same assets and allows you to pass them to your loved ones with reduced estate tax consequences.

We would love the opportunity to discuss any of these above options with you or your professional advisors. Please contact us for more information to include the St Ignatius School Foundation in your estate plan.

HOW FOUNDATIONS WORK FINANCIALLY!

A financial gift of any size will last forever as a piece of the endowment. The endowment or foundation is a pool of money with one slide in and walls so high nothing can leave! Once money slides into the pool it will never leave. The Foundation grows that pool of money through sound and disciplined investing. Any distribution that the school receives comes from money that was generated through growth that the investments of the endowment produces.

Therefore, a gift to the St. Ignatius School Foundation is a gift that truly lasts forever.

Please consider sending your gift in honor or in memory of someone as a special Christmas present! Their name will be listed in our next newsletter!

Please Contact Jo Ann Grubb at her email joanngrb@comcast.net or her phone (503) 774-2917 for any questions. Thank you!!!
